*Chris and Sue reported that, along with Ray and Jason, they met to discuss creating binders for all the TCRC races. Further discussion will be at a future date.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST: Was under budget and went well.

TCRC GRAND PRIX 2022: Greg sent communication to the board and said that The King & Queen of The Beer Tree Mountain should be changed in the Grand Prix from a 5K to a 3 Miler in 2023. The standard for the GP will also need to be changed.

TCRC SOCIAL: There are 84 people registered to date. Chris gave Kat a check to pay deposit.

ANNUAL DINNER: The dinner is set for March 10th at Atrio. The Member of The Year will return as an award given to a TCRC member and Grace will put out an email to the membership explaining what the award entails.

SELF DEFENSE COURSE: Sarah will try to have a date for the class by the TCRC Social. She will reschedule date once she finds out if the RRCA will provide insurance for the class.

TCRC JACKETS: Jason asked that the date be pushed back for announcing details of a TCRC jacket program. The committee will figure out details such as patches and the best program for tracking. The program will start in 2024 and they are aiming for October of 2023 to get details to membership.

NON-BINARY DISCUSSION: Vince Fox discussed information regarding gender choices when signing up for a race.

RRCA recommends providing a non-binary choice.

BOSTON MARATHON accommodating non-binary and will allow non-binary to register and run.

CHICAGO MARATHON including non-binary on registrations.

NYC RUNNERS CLUB: includes non-binary awards for all of its races.

FINGER LAKES RACES non-binary in policy statement but their races do not reflect that.

Chris suggested making diversity statement and have instructions on registering as non-binary.

Discussion on Grand Prix and how it can affect scoring. GP is age/gender based.

Vince was asked to refine the statement and bring it back to the board at the February meeting.
